Ribbit—I love it. I am the only girl with red hair of all my cousins, and I ran up the steps at our city's public library like Rocky Balboa did in the movie!

Marketing Plan: The best way to convince people to become involved in an organization is to provide them with evidence that the organization is successful in achieving its goals. The Miss AnyState's Outstanding Teen Program was created to give teens an avenue to develop their speaking skills and a forum to present their talents and viewpoints. As Miss AnyState's Outstanding Teen 2012, I would market the organization by making appearances and speaking at schools to demonstrate how the experience of being involved with the Miss America's Outstanding Teen Organization can help shape young women to become well-spoken, confident, and active in their communities.

Legacy: I want to be known as the Miss AnyState's Outstanding Teen who changed the way that people perceive teenagers. Although teens do not always portray themselves in the proper light, I want the state of AnyState, my peers, and the Miss AnyState Scholarship Organization to reflect on my year of service as a Miss AnyState's Outstanding Teen who proved that teenagers can make a huge difference in every community.

Why I should be Miss AnyState's Outstanding Teen 2012: I would be a good choice for Miss AnyState's Outstanding Teen because I possess the speaking skills, talent, confidence and poise that it takes to be a state titleholder. Also, I would love to have the opportunity to utilize the title of Miss AnyState's Outstanding Teen to promote my platform of "Celebrating Inclusivity" throughout the state.
